CONTENTS

ABOUT THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF SURGEONS

The American College of Surgeons (ACS) is dedicated to improving the care of the surgical patient and safeguarding standards of care in an optimal and ethical practice environment. The ACS is the largest organization of surgeons in the world. It is the single strongest voice for surgeons in all specialties and, since its founding in 1913 by surgeons from the United States and Canada, has been at the forefront of providing quality care for surgical patients and supporting surgeons wherever they practice. The ACS works on behalf of its members and their patients by:

- Developing innovative education and training programs to support practicing surgeons, surgery residents, and members of surgical teams
- Improving care for surgical patients through ACS Quality Programs
- Fostering the next generation of promising surgeons through scholarships and fellowships
- Conducting research to provide innovative best practices in patient care
- Giving surgeons from across the US and around the globe opportunities for networking
- Promoting the image of the surgical profession, today and tomorrow

FACS Designation

The FACS designation (Fellow, American College of Surgeons) after a surgeon's name means that the surgeon's education and training, professional qualifications, surgical competence, and ethical conduct have undergone a rigorous evaluation and have been found to be consistent with the high standards established and demanded by the College.

Great Mace

Presented as a gift of goodwill from 61 British surgeons in 1920 who worked alongside American surgeons in World War I, the Great Mace debuted at the 1920 ACS Annual Meeting in Montreal. The Great Mace is a symbol of fellowship, and its presentation during the procession at the Convocation Ceremony of the ACS Clinical Congress has been a tradition for more than 100 years.

Convocation

The first Convocation Ceremony was held on November 13, 1913, at the Congress Hotel in Chicago, IL. The inaugural class of 1,059 surgeons from the US and Canada included six female surgeons. The 2022 class has 2,355 Initiates from 77 countries, including 650 female inductees.

The ACS Board of Regents is honored to confer Fellowship on the 2022 Initiates and welcomes them to the American College of Surgeons. Congratulations to all!

Closing Remarks

50-YEAR AND 25-YEAR INITIATE CLASSES

With the engagement and support of more than 84,000 surgeons, residents, medical students, and members of the surgical team around the globe, the College wishes to recognize the initiate classes from 1972 and 1997.

We congratulate these Fellows on their milestone anniversaries, and we thank them for their dedication to the College, their contributions to surgery, and their commitment to the ACS motto "To Heal All With Skill and Trust."

"It has been a privilege and an honor to be a Fellow of the College. The FACS initials after my name have opened a lot of doors and opportunities during my surgical career."

—Hector E. Morales, MD, FACS, 50-year Fellow

"It's hard to believe, 25 years. It's been an honor to be an ACS Fellow. The College inspires me to give my best for our patients each and every day."

—Rekha K. Singh, MD, FACS, 25-year Fellow

HONORARY FELLOWSHIPS

Conferral of Honorary Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons began in 1913 upon the ACS founding. Individuals selected for Honorary Fellowship generally practice outside of the United States, possess an international reputation in the field of surgery or medicine, and have provided distinguished humanitarian service in the field of medical science. The ACS has more than 160 living Honorary Fellows listed on its website. This year, Honorary Fellowship will be bestowed upon 12 prominent surgeons.

Mohammad M. Al-Qattan, MD
Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Sponsored by: Jamal Jomah, MBBS, FACS, FRCSC, FRCSEd, ABHRS; and Adnan Ghazi Gelidan, MD, FRCSC, FACS

Dr. Mohammad Al-Qattan is a professor of surgery and consultant plastic and reconstructive surgeon at King Saud University in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, where he previously served as head of the College of Medicine Research Center and the Division of Plastic Surgery.

Dr. Al-Qattan also serves as a consultant to National Guard Hospital, King Faisal Hospital and Research Center, and National Care Industrial Hospital, all in Riyadh.

After completing his medical education from King Saud University in 1983, Dr. Al-Qattan pursued plastic surgery residency training at the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg, Canada, followed by fellowships in craniofacial surgery, microvascular surgery, pediatric hand surgery, and general pediatric plastic surgery, all at the University of Toronto in Canada. In 1994, he returned to King Saud University as an assistant professor of surgery and consultant plastic surgeon. In 2003, he was named professor of surgery at King Saud University.

Dr. Al-Qattan has published more than 500 peer-reviewed articles and book chapters and has received more than 90 awards, mainly for presentations of his clinical work. He also owns a US patent for a device he invented to perform sutureless repair of nerve injury.

Dr. Al-Qattan has served on editorial boards and held visiting professorships in the Middle East, Europe, Asia, and the US. He is a member of numerous specialty organizations, including the British Society for Surgery of the Hand, American Cleft Palate—Craniofacial Association, International Society for Burn Injuries, and the American Society for Peripheral Nerve.

Ines Buccimazza, MBChB, FCS(SA), FACS
Durban, South Africa

Sponsored by: Christine Laronga, MD, FACS; Hilary A. Sanfey, MB BCh, MHPE, FACS, FRCSEd(Hon), FRCSI(Hon); Nancy L. Gantt, MD, FACS; and Patricia J. Numann, MD, DSc(Hon), FRCSGlas(Hon), FRCSEd(Hon), FRCSThai(Hon), FASI(Hon)

Dr. Ines Buccimazza is a senior specialist in the Department of Surgery at the Nelson R. Mandela School of Medicine at the University of KwaZulu-Natal in Durban, South Africa. She also heads the Clinical Unit of Breast and Endocrine Surgery at Inkosi Albert Luthuli Central Hospital in Durban, where she leads the Breast Multidisciplinary Team meetings. In addition, Dr. Buccimazza chairs the Durban Breast Cancer Forum, is a council member and past president of the Surgical Research Society of Southern Africa and a council member and past treasurer of Breast Surgery International.

She is an ACS Fellow, a board examiner for the College of Surgeons of South Africa, and an ACS Advanced Trauma Life Support course director for South Africa. Dr. Buccimazza recently was elected as president of the Association of Surgeons in South Africa, which is the organization that represents General Surgeons in South Africa.

Dr. Buccimazza received her MBChB from Stellenbosch University in Cape Town, South Africa, in 1987. Subsequently she completed postgraduate training in general surgery at the University of KwaZulu-Natal in Durban and then a 3-month sabbatical in oncoplastic breast surgery at The Paris Breast Institute in France.

Her current practice focuses on breast care and breast surgery with emphasis on improving outcomes from breast cancer in low- and middle-income countries. She also is a contributor and section editor for Breast Care, which is a training manual for healthcare professionals regarding diagnosis and management of benign breast conditions in South Africa.

Dr. Buccimazza also represents the University of KwaZulu-Natal as an executive committee member for the Surgical Research Society of Southern Africa, serves on the editorial board of the World Journal of Surgery, and is a deputy editor for the South African Journal of Surgery. She has presented extensively both in Africa and internationally. As a result of her accomplishments, she was admitted to Honorary Lifetime Achievement membership in the Society of University Surgeons in 2010.

Reinhold Ganz, MD
Gümligen, Switzerland

Sponsored by: L. Scott Levin, MD, FACS; and C. Gerber, MD

Dr. Reinhold Ganz is internationally recognized as an innovator and pioneer in hip preservation surgery.

Born in Germany, he studied medicine at the University of Freiburg, Kiel and Innsbruck. He completed a residency in general surgery in Münsterlingen, Switzerland, followed by a 3-year residency in bone physiology at the Institute of Pathology at the University of Basel and the AO Research Institute in Davos, Switzerland. He remained in Switzerland, where he began a 34-year career in the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at the University of Bern in various positions from resident to chief of staff to professor and chair.

Dr. Ganz has authored or coauthored approximately 550 peer-reviewed articles for scientific publications and is the recipient of many international awards. Most notably, he has received membership in the Swiss Academy of Medical Sciences, the Arthur Steindler Award from the Orthopedic Research Society, the John Charnley Medal, the King Faisal International Prize for Medicine, and the Lifetime Achievement Award of the American Hip Society. Earlier this year, he was named the inaugural recipient of the Dominik C. Meyer Award at the meeting of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

A member of several international medical associations, Dr. Ganz served as president of the International Hip Society.

After his retirement in 2004, Dr. Ganz volunteered for 3 years as a senior consultant for hip and pelvic surgery at the Balgrist University Hospital in Zürich, Switzerland, and remains the chair emeritus at the University of Bern.

Laura G. Viani, BA, BCh, BAO, DMMD, MSc, FRCSI
Dublin, Ireland

Sponsored by: Hilary A. Sanfey, MB BCh, MHPE, FACS, FRCSEd(Hon), FRCSI(Hon); and Gerald B. Healy, MD, FACS

Dr. Laura Viani has been president of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland (RCSI) since June 2022. She is a consultant otolaryngologist and neuro-otologist to Beaumont Hospital and Temple Street University Children's Hospital in Dublin, Ireland.

A graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, Dr. Viani pursued her otolaryngology training in Dublin, Manchester, and Liverpool and was appointed as a consultant to Beaumont Hospital in 1993. She undertook fellowships in skull-base surgery in Cambridge, UK, and neuro-otology in Zurich, Switzerland, before returning to Ireland in 1995 to perform Ireland's first cochlear implant. To date, she and her colleagues Peter Walsh and Fergal Glynn have carried out more than 2,000 cochlear implants in profoundly deaf children and adults.

She established the Republic of Ireland's first and only cochlear implant program in 1995, which has grown to become the National Hearing Implant and Research Centre. This standalone department at Beaumont Hospital cares for children and adults with severe to profound hearing loss from all over Ireland. She established the multi-institutional Hearing Research Centre, comprising professionals from Beaumont and Temple Street Hospitals, the RCSI and Trinity College Dublin, each in Dublin. She also established research collaborations with Vanderbilt University in Nashville, TN. She has supervised many PhD and MSc theses for students of Trinity College Dublin and RCSI.

Dr. Viani has been a Council Member of the RCSI since 2000. She is a past president of the otolaryngology section of the RCSI and RCSI Student Surgical Society. She is an honorary associate professor for the RCSI and an honorary adjunct professor in the School of Medicine Trinity College Dublin.

She has won numerous scholarships and awards, including the RAMI Registrar Prize, RCSI Research Fellowship, Angel James Prize London, Graves Lecturer, The Philip Stell Award, and Outstanding Teaching Award from Bahrain and Middle East Otolaryngology. She presented The Joseph Toynbee Lecture at the RCSI. She has been a visiting professor in the Cochlear Institutes of Sydney, Melbourne, and Bahrain and has been an advisor on cochlear implantation to training centers worldwide.

OWEN H. WANGENSTEEN SCIENTIFIC FORUM AWARD

The American College of Surgeons Scientific Forum Committee has dedicated the Owen H. Wangensteen Scientific Forum to an individual who best exemplifies the qualities of a successful academic surgeon. Awardees have advanced academic surgery as expert clinicians, accomplished researchers, and outstanding educators and mentors. This year, we are honored to dedicate the Forum to Henri R. Ford, MD, FACS, a pediatric surgeon and dean of the Miller School of Medicine at the University of Miami, FL.

Born in Haiti, Dr. Henri Ford's family fled to New York, NY, when he was 13 years old, settling in Brooklyn. Dr. Ford knew no English upon entering the US, but within 4 years he enrolled at Princeton University in NJ. There he was awarded the Myron T. Woods Prize for best senior thesis at the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs (now the Princeton School of Public and International Affairs). He has served on the Board of Trustees of Princeton University for 10 years.

Dr. Ford attended Harvard Medical School in Boston, MA, completed his general surgery residency at New York-Presbyterian, Weill Cornell Medical College in New York City, and a pediatric surgical residency and a research fellowship in immunology at the University of Pittsburgh, PA. Dr. Ford remained on the faculty at the University of Pittsburgh and became the Benjamin R. Fisher Chair in Pediatric Surgery and surgeon-in-chief at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.

In 2005, he was appointed vice-president and surgeon-in-chief at Children's Hospital Los Angeles, CA, and professor of surgery at the University of Southern California Keck School of Medicine, where he quickly ascended to vice-dean of medical education. In 2018, he became the dean and chief academic officer at the University of Miami Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine in Florida. Dr. Ford also chairs the council of deans of the Association of American Medical Colleges, leading 156 medical school deans in North America.

Dr. Ford is renowned for his groundbreaking research in necrotizing enterocolitis, significant history of extramural funding, and his reputation for mentorship and sponsorship.

He served on the ACS Board of Regents from 2012 to 2021. As a Regent, Dr. Ford chaired the Ethics Committee and Program Committee, and led the College's efforts to provide trauma care for children injured during the 2010 earthquake in Haiti. In 2015, he led a team that performed the first successful separation of conjoined twins in the island nation and in the Caribbean.

Dr. Ford has also served on the ACS Board of Governors and Advisory Council for Pediatric Surgery. He is past president of the Society of Black Academic Surgeons and the first Black president of the Association for Academic Surgery, Surgical Infections Society, and American Pediatric Surgical Association. He has been a stalwart supporter of the Scientific Forum as a research mentor and member of the ACS Scientific Forum and Program Committees.

DR. MARY EDWARDS WALKER INSPIRING WOMEN IN SURGERY AWARD

*This award was established by the ACS Women in Surgery Committee and is presented annually at Clinical Congress in recognition of an individual's significant contributions to the advancement of women in the field of surgery. The award is named in honor of Mary Edwards Walker, MD, the first female surgeon employed by the US Army, the only female recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor, and a tireless crusader for women's rights. This year's recipient is Ernestine Hambrick, MD, FACS, FASCRS.

Dr. Ernestine Hambrick is a clinical assistant professor of surgery at the University of Illinois College of Medicine and retired colon-rectal surgeon from Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center and Cook County Hospital in Chicago, IL. She completed her medical degree at the University of Illinois College of Medicine and her general surgery residency and colon and rectal surgery fellowship at Cook County Hospital.

She is the first woman Diplomate of the American Board of Colon and Rectal Surgery and also is a Diplomate of the American Board of Surgery. She holds many firsts with the American Society of Colon & Rectal Surgeons (ASCRS). She was the first woman on its executive council, first woman vice president of both the ASCRS and ASCRS Research Foundation, and the only woman honoree of a named lecture. She also was the first woman oral examiner for the American Board of Colon-Rectal Surgeons.

Dr. Hambrick has supported women in surgery, especially women within colon-rectal surgery. She helped create a women's group within ASCRS, for which the annual networking luncheon has grown to more than 200 attendees. Her leadership, mentorship, and commitment to advancing women surgeons continues to thrive as many of the women surgeons she has touched—directly and indirectly—throughout her career ascend to various leadership positions within surgery while making significant contributions to the surgical community.

In addition, Dr. Hambrick continued to embody the spirit of Dr. Mary Edwards Walker in her creation of the STOP Colon/Rectal Cancer Foundation. During her career and from the personal experience of losing her only brother to colon cancer, Dr. Hambrick recognized that most colon-rectal cancers could be prevented with screenings. After 25 years as a colon-rectal surgeon, Dr. Hambrick left her practice to lead the STOP Colon/Rectal Cancer Foundation, advocating tirelessly for the eradication of colon and rectal cancer. The Foundation promoted public awareness, preventative screening, early detection, and healthy lifestyle choices.

She was named to the National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable and was involved in the creation of March as National Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month. Within 10 years of its founding, the STOP Colon/Rectal Cancer Foundation achieved much of its mission and formally closed in 2008. Dr. Hambrick completed her professional career as a hospice physician, retiring in 2018.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Distinguished Service Award—the highest honor and award bestowed annually by the American College of Surgeons—was established by the Board of Regents in 1957. The award is in recognition of exceptional and continuous service as an ACS Fellow, as well as a career distinguished by devotion to patient care and the principles and ideals that guide all surgeons in their professional practice. The Board of Regents is pleased to recognize the outstanding contributions of Mark A. Malangoni, MD, FACS.

Dr. Mark Malangoni exemplifies the distinguished service of an international leader in surgery through his long-term commitment to the College and his steadfast dedication to his patients, the profession, and the many students he's mentored over the years. Through his tireless leadership at the ACS, other organizations, and numerous peer-reviewed publications, Dr. Malangoni has exponentially expanded the international reputation and reach of the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. Malangoni has served on the ACS Board of Regents, chaired both the ACS Board of Governors and Advisory Council for General Surgery, and has served on multiple other committees of the College. He is also a past president of the Ohio Chapter of the ACS and received the Distinguished Service Award from the Ohio chapter in 2005.

Dr. Malangoni is a recently retired general surgeon who lives in Lyndhurst, Ohio. He is a past president of the Central Surgical Association, the Surgical Infection Society, and the Cleveland Surgical Society. Dr. Malangoni served as vice-president of the American Surgical Association and the American Association for the Surgery of Trauma. He is a senior director and past chair of the American Board of Surgery and has held leadership roles for the American Board of Emergency Medicine. He also served as vice-chair of the Residency Review Committee for Surgery for the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education. Dr. Malangoni was the associate executive director of the American Board of Surgery from 2011–2019.

A former adjunct professor of surgery at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine in Philadelphia, he also served for more than 20 years as a professor of surgery at the Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine and was chair of the Department of Surgery and surgeon-in-chief at MetroHealth Medical Center, both in Cleveland, during those same 20 years.

An ACS Fellow since 1983, Dr. Malangoni has authored or coauthored more than 200 peer-reviewed articles and 50 book chapters. He is a member or former member of the editorial boards for the American Journal of Surgery, Annals of Surgery, Journal of the American College of Surgeons, Surgery, Surgical Infections, and World Journal of Emergency Surgery.

OUTGOING PRESIDENT (2021–2022)

Julie A. Freischlag, MD, FACS, FRCSEd(Hon), DFSVS, MAMSE, is a renowned vascular surgeon from Winston-Salem, NC. She is the chief executive officer of Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist, dean of Wake Forest University School of Medicine, and chief academic officer of Atrium Health Enterprise. She joined Wake Forest Baptist in 2017 after nearly 30 years as a practicing surgeon, mentor, educator, and leader within medical institutions throughout the US. She is an internationally renowned expert in the diagnosis and treatment of thoracic outlet syndrome.

Dr. Freischlag, who was named a member of the National Academy of Medicine in 2015, has been a committed surgeon-scientist throughout her distinguished career. She was a national investigator for a multicenter randomized trial, the Open Versus Endovascular Repair (OVER) Veterans Affairs Cooperative Study, which investigated abdominal aneurysm repair. She also has led or participated in multimillion dollar grant programs researching aneurysms, vascular grafts, and peripheral vascular disease.

An ACS Fellow since 1991, Dr. Freischlag has served in various leadership roles within the organization. She was an ACS Governor (2000–2006), wherein she served on the Board of Governors (B/G) Executive Committee (2001–2006) and as Secretary (2002–2006). She also chaired the B/G Committee to Study the Fiscal Affairs of the College (2002–2006). Dr. Freischlag was an ACS Regent (2006–2015), serving as Chair of the Board of Regents (B/R) from 2012 to 2014. While she was an ACS Regent, she chaired the Scholarship Committee (2006–2013), Nominating Committee (2006–2011), and Finance Committee (2010–2014), as well as was a member of several other Regental committees. Dr. Freischlag also has served in other ACS leadership capacities, including as Chair of the ACS Committee on Education (2010–2018), Chair of the Scholarships Committee (2008–2012), and a member of the Advisory Council for Vascular Surgery (2006–2015). She was inducted as a member into the ACS Academy of Master Surgeon Educators in 2021.

Additionally, she has held leadership positions in many leading surgical organizations, including the Society for Vascular Surgery, Society of Surgical Chairs, Association of VA Surgeons, Association for Academic Surgery, and the American Board of Surgery.

Dr. Freischlag served as editor of JAMA Surgery/Archives of Surgery, associate editor of the American Journal of Surgery, and has been a member of the editorial board for many other prominent journals, including The Journal of the American Medical Association, the British Journal of Surgery, and the Journal of the American College of Surgeons. She has published more than 300 original papers and written approximately 60 chapters in textbooks.

Dr. Freischlag is a sought-after lecturer and has been recognized many times for her achievements. Among many other honors, she was awarded the Golden Scalpel Award for Outstanding Teaching as an assistant professor at the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) in 1990 and 1991; Golden Cane Award, Resident Teaching Award, from the Medical College of Wisconsin in 1992 and 1994-1996; Distinguished Member Award in 2000 and the Nina Starr Braunwald Award in 2010 from the Association of Women Surgeons; Lifetime Achievement Award from West Los Angeles VA Hospital in 2006; and honorary fellowship in the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh in 2016. She continuously has been named one of the Best Doctors in America and received the Distinguished Service Award from the Association of VA Surgeons in 2021.

INCOMING PRESIDENT (2022–2023)

E. Christopher Ellison, MD, FACS, MAMSE, is an esteemed general surgeon and surgeon-educator from Columbus, Ohio. He is the Robert M. Zollinger Professor of Surgery Emeritus at The Ohio State University (OSU) College of Medicine (COM). Dr. Ellison recently completed a 2-year term as the George W. Paulson, MD, Medical Heritage Center Scholar-in-Residence.

His clinical interests include pancreatic cancer, gallbladder disease, and Zollinger-Ellison syndrome, named after his father, Edwin H. Ellison, MD, FACS. Now semi-retired, Dr. Chris Ellison remains dedicated to surgical education and coaching surgical residents.

Dr. Ellison earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his medical degree from the Medical College of Wisconsin (MCW) in Milwaukee.

After completing a general surgery residency at OSU, he was hired in 1984 as an assistant professor there. In 1987, he entered community practice in Columbus, then returned to OSU as chief of the Division of General Surgery and became the director of the General Surgery Residency Program.

In 2000, he was named chair of the Department of Surgery and served until April 2013. During that time, the department expanded to include a multidisciplinary basic science and clinical research program. Dr. Ellison also served as interim dean at OSU and is a past-president and chief executive officer of the OSU Physicians Practice Plan, as well as a founding member of that organization.

Over his career, Dr. Ellison has made a significant positive impact on the medical literature. He has published more than 160 peer-reviewed articles. He is principal editor with Robert M. Zollinger Jr., MD, FACS, of the 11th edition of Zollinger's Atlas of Surgical Operations and senior editor with Gilbert R. Upchurch MD, FACS, of the upcoming Fischer's Mastery of Surgery, 8th Edition. Considered an authority on surgical workforce issues, he coauthored The Coming Shortage of Surgeons. He currently serves on the editorial boards of the American Journal of Surgery and Journal of American College of Surgeons.

An ACS Fellow since 1986, Dr. Ellison has held many leadership positions, including: President, Ohio Chapter (1997); ACS Governor (1998–2003); Chair, ACS Advisory Council for General Surgery (2013–2015); Chair, ACS Advisory Council for Surgical Specialties (2013–2015); and Foundation Board Chair (2019–present). He also has served on the Committee on Opportunities for Senior Surgeons (2018), the Mastery of Surgery Committee (2013–present), the Committee on Young Surgeons (1992–1995), and the Committee on Video-Based Education (2003–2009). He is a Member of the ACS Academy of Master Surgeon Educators.

Dr. Ellison also has served in leadership positions for the American Association of Endocrine Surgeons, Central Surgical Association, Society of Surgical Chairs, American Board of Surgery (ABS), American Board of Colon and Rectal Surgery as the ABS representative, American Surgical Association, and James IV Association of Surgeons. In addition, he is a member of the Association for Academic Surgery, Society of University Surgeons, Collegium Internationale Chirurgiae Digestive, International Society for Digestive Surgery, Society for Surgery of the Alimentary Tract, American College of Physician Executives, American Association of Clinical Endocrinologists, American Hepato-Pancreato-Biliary Association, and Society of Laparoscopic Surgeons.

He is the recipient of numerous honors and awards, including membership in the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society. From OSU, his honors include the Distinguished Service Award, Resident Housestaff Teaching Award, Edwin H. Ellison Award, Landacre Society Honorary Award, and Distinguished Professor recognition. From MCW, he was honored with the Distinguished Service Award, Hoffmeister Award for Excellence, and Merck Award for Excellence.

FELLOWSHIP PLEDGE

Recognizing that the American College of Surgeons seeks to exemplify and develop the highest traditions of our ancient profession, I hereby pledge myself, as a condition of Fellowship in the College, to live in strict accordance with the College's principles and regulations.

I PLEDGE TO PURSUE the practice of surgery with honesty and to place the welfare and the rights of my patient above all else. I promise to deal with each patient as I would wish to be dealt with if I were in the patient's position, and I will respect the patient's autonomy and individuality.

I FURTHER PLEDGE TO AFFIRM and support the social contact of the surgical profession with my community and society.

I WILL TAKE NO PART in any arrangement or improper financial dealings that induce referral, treatment, or withholding of treatment for reasons other than the patient's welfare.

UPON MY HONOR, I declare that I will advance my knowledge and skills, will respect my colleagues, and will seek their counsel when in doubt about my own abilities. In turn, I will willingly help my colleagues when requested.

I RECOGNIZE THE INTERDEPENDENCY of all healthcare professionals and will treat each with respect and consideration.

Finally, by my Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons,

I SOLEMNLY PLEDGE TO ABIDE by the Code of Professional Conduct and to cooperate in advancing the art and science of surgery.
